Charles E. Walters Students Donate Decorated Socks to Young Patients

The third grade students at Charles E. Walters Elementary School (CEW) recently gathered in the school's multi-purpose room to assemble some very special packages for some very special young patients. Over the past week, the students had decorated brightly colored tie-dyed socks and added non-slip bottoms for young patients being treated at Memorial Sloan Kettering Cancer Center in Manhattan. The socks were placed in individual bags with personal messages of comfort and good wishes...read press release
